

COVER SHEET : 2019 NAEYC Annual Conference GRADUATE CREDIT ASSIGNMENTS

DIRECTIONS: For SPU graduate credits, complete all three of the following assignments :

1. Critical Reflection for Each Attended Session

Write a typed, 2-3 paragraph critical reflection of each workshop/seminar/keynote attended.

Assignment Guidance:

- Include the title of the session, date, time spent in the session (total hours), and presenter's full name.
- Describe the content of the session and how it impacted your understanding of the topics presented.

2. Critical Synthesis of Conference Attendance

Write a typed critical reflection paper synthesizing the information learned at the conference. If you apply for 1 credit, your paper should be 2-3 pages. If you apply for 2 credits, it should be 4-6 pages.

Assignment Guidance:

- Be specific in sharing how at least three concepts/techniques introduced at the sessions supported or challenged your previous knowledge or assumptions.
- Raise questions that require further inquiry.
- Identify one or more goals that you plan to work toward in your classroom, school, or work setting.
- Describe how you plan to implement this goal, if possible.
- You are welcome to reference the ideas shared in the Critical Reflection you completed for each session.

FORMATTING: Please include NAEYC and your full name on the top of every page in case pages are separated. Formatting Templates can be found on pages 2 and 3 of this document. Submissions must match template format.
